- 1. At a session of the Partido Commista del Ecuador (PCE), in Quite, on the night of Tuesday, 16 January 1951, there was a discussion as to whether it would be practicable at that time to engage in some action against the activities of the Associacion de Investigaciones Anti-Commistas Pro-Naciones Unidas.* No decision was reached, since the meeting was informal and attended by only a few members. The matter is to be discussed when members of the Central Committee are present.
- 2. At this meeting several plans of action against the Asociacion were mentioned: one suggestion was to disrupt showings of USIE films at Asociacion meetings; another was to stone the meeting place; a suggestion to sack the Asociacion's headquarters was raised but not supported by the majority present.
- 3. Cesar Endare, a member of the Central Committee, has stated that he and other Central Committee members feel that no drastic action should be taken against the Asociacion at this time, because Communist-provoked nublic scandals might be detrimental to gaining the collaboration of the Movimiento Civico Democratico Nacional (MCDN), which the PCE desires in the coming presidential elections. Endara mentioned it might be possible for the Communists to provoke a scandal without cormitting themselves personally.

4. Announcements by Guayaouil newspapers that a Comite de Investigaciones Commistas had been organized in (vito under the leadership of Ermesto Espinoza del Compo** evoked comments by two members of the Communist Party in Guayaouil. Jorge Salvatierra Saavedra, a teacher at the Borje Lavayen School and a university law student, and Victor Rodriguez Roditti, also a university law student who teaches at the Borja Lavayen School and is a radio announcer for El Telegrafo, both stated that they believed that this Comite is connected with the U.S. secret service and will spread propagenda against Inssia and in favor of the United Nations. They said that the Comite has induced two retired Foundaran Army officers, Col. Josonin Semeniego and one Col. Batalles, to organize a force of one thousand retired military on in Ecuador to fight in Korea or in any other part of the world against Russia. They further stated that Espinoza will find it more difficult to organize a Comite in Guayaquil, where there is a more liberal smirit and the influence of the church is not so great. Salvatierra and Rodriguez believed that the Comite had been formed in preparation for the meeting of Latin American foreign ministers in March.
